

2017 TOAL Team Building Event Monday, September 25 Tulsa, OK

The theme for TOAL 2017 is Procurement Matters: Surviving & Succeeding.

This year's Team Building Event is modeled after The Amazing Race, but don't worry, there will be no actual running / racing or strenuous activities. However, there will be teams, competition, challenges, clues, fun, food, drink, and prizes! The details of this Amazing Race, aka surviving the Hotel Scavenger Hunt, are top secret and the clues will not be revealed until the evening of the event.

Last year we had such a great time networking with the vendors who sponsored our Pub Trivia team building event. We are again looking for vendor sponsors to help lead TOAL members to survive and succeed the Amazing Race! The cost of sponsorship this year is $1,000. This is a great way to make your company visible and to interact closely with TOAL members!

THE SPACE FOR SPONSORSHIP IS LIMITED SO GET YOURS TODAY!!

Sponsorship includes 2 passes, 2 team t-shirts, listing in the 2017 TOAL program, signage during the conference, and signage at the event. This is a separate event from the vendor exhibit.

Registration is now open on the TOAL website: www.NAEPTOAL.org
